Part A—REASON FOR APPEAL

The Incident Report (dated and delivered to Inmate on 10-7-17 at 3:45 pm) was not timely received by Inmate as required under Section 541.5 of Program Statement #5270.09. The date of the alleged incident was October 6, 2017 at 9:45 am. The report was delivered beyond the 24-hour period as proscribed by Program Statement. In addition, there was improper handling of the envelope and its contents prior to the hearing with the DHO officer. No "chain of custody" was presented at the hearing and the envelope in question had been opened and the contents handled by multiple staff members and individuals, any one of which could have inserted or added or replaced the alleged contents. This objection was raised to the DHO officer who did not address this issue.
